Pro-Life Movie “Unplanned”

This is a movie about the conversion story of Abby Johnson. She was once a clinic director for Planned Parenthood, and is now a Pro-Life activist. First showtimes are 7 and 10pm Thursday March 28th at the B&B Theatre on Midland near I-435.

The Kansas State Knights of Columbus Charities Aid Foundation and the state officers have committed $15,000 to buy out theaters across Kansas and provide tickets to individuals in parishes throughout the state. If you would like to contribute too, bring your donation to our next meeting and we will forward to the state.

February Knight of the Month

Mark Clark was awarded Knight of the Month at our last meeting for all of his planning and work on the Chili Feast cooking contest. Mark is also an important part of the shrimp cooking team.

Thanks
Mark!

We have 191 knights behind at least one year in dues. Second notices will be sent out soon. You can pay online at htknights.org. You can also pay thru the church collection with an envelope marked KOFC. Membership cards can be picked up Tuesday or will be mailed soon after to your home.

Pancakes for Emergency Back-Packs Succeeded!

With the efforts of many Knights we had another successful breakfast last month. All of the special items being served now are attracting many families. Egg casserole and yogurt bar have been a hit! The proceeds of $800 will be sufficient to purchase all of the items needed to fulfill the state required back-packs for the Early Education Center. Thanks to Susan Smith for getting the word out and helping to meet our goal.

Shrimp Dinner Sign-ups at our meeting on Tuesday!

If you have not already volunteered, you will have another chance Tuesday. Calvin Todd our Shrimp Dinner Chairman will have a sign-up sheet for the big day on April 5th.

Knights in Action Recommended Programs can be found on the Supreme web site at www.kofc.org.

Faith , Family, Community, and Life.

There are 8 items in each of these groups and our Council is asked to do 4 items in each category. Some of our current programs already check off some of these. We will need to do more under the Faith section.

Know Your Faith

Here’s a great resource for looking up Catholic doctrine. This web page is part of the Knights Supreme web site. The page provides a search mechanism into the current Catechism of the Catholic Church.
