Knights in Action! Our Kansas State KOFC members toured the devastating tornado damage in Linwood and Eudora Kansas on Friday May 21st. They had two teams in both locations handing out $200 Walmart Gift cards to the families in these areas. A total of $6,200 was shared. Funds came from the State Pennies from Heaven Fund that were transferred to EDAP. The State also sent $20,000 to Nebraska Flood victims. These funds were raised from Kansas Councils and sent directly to Charities Aid. So far our Council has received $400 in tornado donations from our members!

Dues

Please consider paying your past due dues ($32) payment soon. Non payment of dues cost our Council about $10 per member in per capita tax to the State and Supreme KOFC. At this time that is about $1,000 in cost that we could use to help someone, or to support our Priests and Seminarians. The other $22 of the dues for each member lost equates to $2200. Money that could be used for cost to run our Council or to fund St. Vincent DePaul of Holy Trinity.

Please pay your dues soon!

April Knight of the Month

Our Brother Calvin Todd is April's Knight of the Month. Calvin did another great job planning and coordinating our annual Shrimp Dinner, raising $3800 for Holy Trinity School! Thanks Calvin!

May Knights of the Month

Arden Carr and Don Goertzen are our Knights of the month for May.

Arden and Don lead our Knights at the latest pancake breakfast for the benefit of the Fritschie family. A record $3000 was raised! Thank you gentlemen!
